Dear Jane:

It was good to hear from you. I plan to arrive in Los Angeles Saturday about noon in order to attend the activities of the State and Court Law Libraries that day and will be there for the Chapters Workshop Sunday morning at 9:30 in the Century Plaza Hotel. I am sending a copy of your letter and my reply to you, to Caroline Heriot, Vice President-President Elect, and Nancy Kitchen, Secretary-Treasurer, of the SE Chapter. All three of us hold office until the end of our annual meeting in August of next year (1976).

I urge both Caroline and Nancy to attend the Chapters Workshop. I will plan to attend both the workshop and the luncheon for Chapter presidents.

We have not done anything in the SE Chapter on tax exempt status. We are not earning any money; we have no money in savings accounts; and we have not as of yet filed an income tax form. We are not incorporated. We have not received, nor have we solicited, tax exempt contributions to my knowledge. If that happened, we would probably want to use AALL's tax exempt status.

The one big problem that I see facing the SE Chapter is institutes. As you know, we have had two successful institutes. We have two more planned. Our next one is to be in May of this year in Atlanta on microforms and in April of 1976 we have a joint institute planned with the SW Chapter.

Will see you in Los Angeles. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
President
